BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS WITH A MAJOR IN FINE ARTS

In George Washington University's Fine Arts program, students discover their own creative direction through foundational coursework and exposure to diverse creative practices and experiences, rather than through directives for specific artistic aesthetic. Students are encouraged to develop their own artistic direction through studio practices, an experienced faculty, and the inspiration of Washington, DC's, vibrant cultural life and renowned galleries and museums. Courses in the fine arts cover a wide range of studio arts including, sculpture, ceramics, photography, video, painting, drawing, printmaking, book arts, performance, socially engaged practices, and new media. By studying at a research university, students are prepared to respond to the complexity of possibilities facing contemporary artists. Some program graduates continue practicing as independent artists. Some go on to earn graduate degrees, while others have secured positions at the National Gallery of Art, Phillips Collection, Aperture, Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, and Christie's.

Visit the program website (https://corcoran.gwu.edu/fine-artundergraduate/) for additional information.

GENERAL EDUCATION

In addition to the University General Education Requirement (http://bulletin.gwu.edu/university-regulations/general-education/), undergraduate students in Columbian College must complete a further, College-specific general education curriculum—Perspective, Analysis, Communication (G-PAC) (https://advising.columbian.gwu.edu/general-education-curriculum-gpac/) as well as the course CCAS 1001 First-Year Experience. Together with the University General Education Requirement, G-PAC engages students in active intellectual inquiry across the liberal arts. Students achieve a set of learning outcomes that enhance their analytical skills, develop their communication competencies, and invite them to participate as responsible citizens who are attentive to issues of culture, diversity, and privilege.

Coursework (http://bulletin.gwu.edu/universityregulations/general-education/#generaleducationtext) for the University General Education Requirement is distributed as follows:

- $\bullet\,$  One course in critical thinking in the humanities.
- Two courses in critical thinking, quantitative reasoning, or scientific reasoning in the social sciences.
- One course that has an approved oral communication component.
- One course in quantitative reasoning (must be in mathematics or statistics).

- One course in scientific reasoning (must be in natural and/or physical laboratory sciences).
- UW 1020 (https://bulletin.gwu.edu/search/?P=UW%201020)
   University Writing (4 credits).
- After successful completion of UW 1020, 6 credits distributed over at least two writing in the discipline (WID) courses taken in separate semesters. WID courses are designated by a "W" appended to the course number.

Coursework for the CCAS G-PAC requirement is distributed as follows:

- Arts—one approved arts course that involves the study or creation of artwork based on an understanding or interpretation of artistic traditions or knowledge of art in a contemporary context.
- Global or cross-cultural perspective—one approved course that analyzes the ways in which institutions, practices, and problems transcend national and regional boundaries.
- Local or civic engagement—one approved course that develops the values, ethics, disciplines, and commitment to pursue responsible public action.
- Natural or physical science—one additional approved laboratory course that employs the process of scientific inquiry (in addition to the one course in this category required by the University General Education Requirement).
- Humanities—one additional approved humanities course that involves critical thinking skills (in addition to the one course in this category required by the University General Education Requirement).
- CCAS 1001 First-Year Experience

Certain courses are approved to fulfill GPAC requirements in more than one category.

Courses taken in fulfillment of G-PAC requirements may also be counted toward majors or minors. Transfer courses taken prior to, but not after, admission to George Washington University may count toward the University General Education Requirement and G-PAC, if those transfer courses are equivalent to GW courses that have been approved by the University and the College.

Lists of approved courses in the above categories are included on each undergraduate major's (http://bulletin.gwu.edu/artssciences/#majorstext) page in this Bulletin.
