

MASTER OF ARTS IN THE FIELD OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

As part of the social and behavioral sciences discipline in the Columbian College of Arts and Sciences, the master's program examines politics on a national and international scale, with three focus areas: World Politics, American Politics, and Law and Politics. Our MA program allows for a flexible and individually crafted curriculum, where students gain an opportunity to work with prominent scholars in a wide range of fields, take advantage of interdisciplinary coursework, and have access to the resources and opportunities of the nation's capital. We train students broadly and emphasize competency in research methods.

Our MA students go on to prestigious PhD programs, find positions in government, the public and private sectors, and international institutions. They sit on boards and run for political office.

Visit the program website (<https://politicalscience.columbian.gwu.edu/ma-political-science/>) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadlines: Fall - 1 April (1 February to be considered for fellowships)

Standardized GRE general test (institutional code 5246) test scores:

The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the academic International English Language Testing System (IELTS), or the PTE Academic is required of all applicants except those who hold a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree from a college or university in the United States or from an institution located in a country in which English is the official language, provided English was the language of instruction.

Minimum scores for the program are:

- Academic IELTS: an overall band score of 7.0 with no individual score below 6.0; or

- TOEFL: 600 on paper-based or 100 on Internet-based; or

- PTE Academic: 68.

Recommendations required: Three (3) academic letters of recommendations required

Prior academic records: Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended must be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission.

If transcripts are in a language other than English, English language translations must be provided. The English translation alone should be uploaded into your application.

Statement of purpose: In an essay of 250 – 500 words, state your purpose in undertaking graduate study in your chosen field and describe what political problems or questions motivate you. Include your academic objectives, research interests, and career plans. Also discuss your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities, and any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned on the application. If you are applying for an assistantship or fellowship, you should also describe any teaching experience you have had.

Writing Sample: Academic writing sample of not more than 30 pages required.

International applicants: Please review International Applicant Information (<https://columbian.gwu.edu/international-graduate-applicants> (<https://columbian.gwu.edu/international-graduate-applicants/>)) carefully for details on required documents, earlier deadlines for applicants requiring an I-20 or DS-2019 from GW, and English language requirements.
