

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN CURRICULUM WRITING, EVALUATION, AND DEVELOPMENT

The graduate certificate in curriculum writing, evaluation, and development prepares individuals for careers as curriculum writers, curriculum specialists, and curriculum evaluators. Students learn to select and develop curriculum materials, with a special focus on ensuring materials are accessible, inclusive, effective, and engaging. Students also learn how to manage curriculum development and evaluation projects in K-12 schools, higher education, and informal learning environments.

Visit the program website (<https://gsehd.gwu.edu/gc-cwed/>) for additional information.

REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 12 credits, including 9 credits in required courses and 3 credits in elective courses.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
CPED 6305	Foundations of Curriculum Theory
CPED 6801	Curriculum Evaluation
CPED 6802	Curriculum Project Management
Elective
3 credits in elective courses selected in consultation with the program advisor.		