

MINOR IN DISASTER MANAGEMENT

The minor in disaster management introduces students to the leadership, assessment, and problem-solving skills required to operate in the unique environment of disasters, public health emergencies, and special operations situations.

REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 18 credits, including 12 credits in required courses and 6 credits in elective courses.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
EHS 2109	Infectious Diseases and Bioterrorism
EHS 4101	Humanitarian Relief Operations
EHS 4112	Special Operations and Disaster Management
HSCI 4114	Healthcare in Developing Nations
Electives
6 credits in elective courses selected from the following:
COHM 4110	Strategic Communication for Healthcare Professionals
EHS 2211	Introduction to Telemedicine
EHS 3174	Foundations of Emergency Health Services Systems
EHS 4110	Operations Management in Emergency Health Services Systems
HSCI 2110	Disease Prevention and Health Promotion Concepts
HSCI 4102	Human Physiology in Extreme Environments
HSCI 4106	Introduction to Epidemiology for Health Sciences
MLS 2005	Plagues, Pandemics, and Epidemics	